

Shugart Builders has earned our trust as both builder and general contractor in our projects, large and small, over the last 13 years. From building our home, through subsequent additions and projects, Greg Shugart and his team have demonstrated not only superior workmanship but integrity in their profession as well. We could not recommend them more highly!